

Ms. Agostine's Classroom Cell Phone Policy

1. Electronic devices may not be used to conduct any activities that interfere with, or are disruptive to, educational activities. They are permitted when they are being used as part of a classroom activity.
2. Ear buds are prohibited unless they are used for a classroom activity.
3. The classroom is NOT A CHARGING STATION FOR CELL PHONES.
4. Phones must be powered OFF or set on SILENT MODE and placed either on:
 - The corner of your desk in clear view.
 - Inside your book bag and the book bag placed on the floor.
5. Following the classroom cell phone rules will allow you to accumulate weekly "Classroom Rewards" points. Each week that you follow the rules you will receive one bonus point.
 - Five bonus points can be redeemed for extra credit, posted to the "Homework" category in Skyward.
6. If you are caught using your phone during class there are two consequences:
 - A loss of classroom participation points for that day
 - The cell phone gets placed in "TIMEOUT" for the remainder of the period.
7. Repeated cell phone use will result in a call home.
